150th ANNIVERSARY OF THE MONTE-CARLO SBM

On the 2nd April 1863, an Order of Prince Charles III has given François Blanc the exclusive right to run in Monaco the "Société des Bains de Mer et du Cercle des Etrangers", which became Monte-Carlo SBM. The opening of the new Casino, in 1863, represents the founding act of the company. Close to the Casino, the Hôtel de Paris, the Café Divan (called later on the Café de Paris), and a spa dedicated to health and well-being, the Thermes Marins Monte-Carlo, have been built by François Blanc. Today, the Monte-Carlo SBM group is one of the main leading players in Europe's gaming sector and is the leader in luxury tourism in Monaco, supporting the most important sporting and cultural events in the Principality too.

BICENTENARY OF THE BIRTH OF RICHARD WAGNER

A musician but also a playwright, philosopher and director, Richard Wagner (Leipzig 1813 – Venice 1883) was unrivalled in Germany in his time. Through his writing and direction, opera was transformed into a "total work of art", a complete spectacle, using the techniques of through-composition and leitmotiv. The stamp represents Der Ring des Nibelungen, a cycle of four operas also called a tetralogy and inspired by Germanic and Scandinavian mythology. Wagner took nearly 30 years to write and compose this complex work.

CENTENARY OF THE CREATION OF THE RITE OF SPRING BY STRAVINSKY

The Rite of Spring is a ballet composed by Igor Stravinsky and originally choreographed by Nijinsky for Serge de Diaghilev's Ballets Russes. Its first performance at the Théâtre des Champs-Élysées in 1913 caused outrage due to its provocative choreography, the violence of the music and its strange costumes. Today, Stravinsky's score is considered as one of the major works of the 20th century and has inspired many choreographers such as Maurice Béjart and Pina Bausch.

A FORMER GRIMALDI FIEF – DUCHY OF VALENTINOIS

Until the French Revolution, the Princes of Monaco were in possession of substantial fiefs on the French territory. The duchy of Valentinois was given by Louis XIII, King of France, through the Treaty of Peronne, signed on 14th September 1641. H.S.H. Prince Albert II has officially visited the duchy of Valentinois and the city of Crest in May 2013. The stamp features the Tower of Crest, the highest medieval dungeon in France, as well as the coat of arms of the Grimaldis with the crown of Honoré II.

150th ANNIVERSARY OF THE BIRTH OF DOCTOR JULES RICHARD

The French scientist, Jules Richard (1863-1945) was one of the most loyal employees of Prince Albert Ist and accompanied him on his many oceanographic expeditions. In 1900, he was appointed director of the Monaco Oceanographic Museum then under construction and remained there until his death in 1945. Jules Richard helped to advance our knowledge of the marine world (study of plankton, bacteriological samples, etc.). He was equally productive in the fields of physical and chemical oceanography, as evidenced by the development of the many instruments for taking water samples.
