JOINT ISSUE MONACO-RUSSIA

The joint issue between the Principality of Monaco and the Russian Federation is placed under the theme of mythic automobiles. The Monaco stamp commemorates the "Sunbeam Alpine" driven by Grace Kelly in 1955 in the film To Catch a Thief. This vehicle belongs to the ancient car collection of HSH the Sovereign Prince; it is exhibited in the Monaco Top Cars Collection Museum. The Russian stamp represents the "ZIL-111V". This limousine was used for the official travel of Nikita Khrushchev. It also carried Yuri Gagarin, the first man to travel through space, during the parade organised in his honour in Moscow on the 14th April 1961.

THE EVOLUTION OF TRANSPORT IN THE PRINCIPALITY

Founded in 1939, the Compagnie des Autobus de Monaco (CAM) took over from the old Compagnie des Tramways de Monaco (CTM) established in 1897. During its existence, the CTM exploited three lines linking different suburbs of the Principality. The CTM network was purchased by the company Tramways de Nice et du Littoral (TNL) in 1909. The last tram circulated in Monaco in 1931. In line with the environmental policy of the Prince's Government, the CAM has a fleet of buses running on diester and hybrid buses.
