BLOCK Series

SHARKS

This block is a continuation of the series first issued in 2013 to mark the opening of the major sensory exhibition allowing visitors to experience an encounter with sharks. The exhibition runs until 2015. The objective is to overcome prejudices and help people to discover the true nature of these masters of the seas. Essential to the health of ecosystems, these large predators now find themselves under threat. The three stamps in the block depict three different species: the blacktip reef shark, the hammerhead shark, and the grey reef shark.

ANCIENT GRIMALDI FIEFDOMS IN THE CARLADÈS AREA OF CANTAL

In 1643, King Louis XIII gave the Comté de Carladès to Prince Honoré II under the terms of the 1641 Treaty of Péronne. Last May, H.S.H. Prince Albert II and H.S.H. Princess Charlene of Monaco paid an official visit to these ancient fiefdoms. The block comprises two stamps: one representing the House of the Princes of Monaco at Vic-sur-Cère, where Prince Louis I stayed in 1668; the second depicting the Rocher de Carlat. This year marks the centenary of the date that the Rocher was handed over to Prince Albert I, and it still belongs to the Sovereign of Monaco.

UNIVERSAL CHILDREN'S DAY

At the instigation of H.S.H. Prince Albert II, the Principality of Monaco marks Universal Children's Day every year on 20th November. It was on this date in 1989 that the international Convention on the Rights of the Child was ratified by the UN General Assembly. The Department of Education, Youth and Sport organises an awareness campaign in schools on this theme. Numerous activities are held in order to raise money to help children whose most basic rights are not respected.

150th ANNIVERSARY OF THE BIRTH OF EUGÈNE FREY

The New National Museum of Monaco is this year exhibiting model opera sets, the result of a collaboration between Alphonse Visconti and the artist and painter Eugène Frey. These "luminous sets" characterised the Monte-Carlo Opera between 1904 and 1924, and then again during the 1937-1938 season. The stamp depicts the projection equipment used for the production of Berlioz's Damnation of Faust. The year 2014 marks the 150th anniversary of the birth of Eugène Frey, who was born in Brussels in 1864.

MONACO-MOROCCO JOINT ISSUE

The Principality of Monaco and the Kingdom of Morocco will unveil their joint issue during the Salon Philatélique d'Automne (Autumn Stamp Exhibition) in Paris on 6th November. This joint issue is an opportunity to express the very long-standing ties between the two countries. Under the high patronage of His Majesty King Mohammed VI, the exhibition entitled "Prince Albert I's exploration of Morocco at the end of the 19th century" was opened in Rabat on 5th March by H.R.H. Prince Moulay Rachid and H.S.H. Prince Albert II. Through photographs and text, the exhibition recounts Prince Albert I's voyage from Monaco to Morocco between 1894 and 1897. The pair of stamps depicts an image of Hassan Tower dating from the period and a photo of the Oceanographic Museum of Monaco that was built by Prince Albert I.

BICENTENARY OF THE TREATY OF PARIS

The Treaty of Paris signed on 30th May 1814 laid down France's borders following the defeat of Napoleon I, and returned the Principality of Monaco to the footing on which it had stood prior to 1st January 1792. Applying the principle of legitimacy, the Prince of Monaco, Honoré IV, regained his throne, and France once more became the Principality's protector. Louis Millo-Terrazzani was named Governor General and took possession of the country on 17th June.
